

Belarus
EFSCA Congress day 1
The Institute for Command Engineers
25, Mashinostroiteley Street
Minsk

Wednesday – 29 May 2013

08.30	Registration of delegates
09.00	Opening of the Conference in the Institute
	Welcome speeches by:
-	Deputy Minister for Emergency Situations of the Republic of Belarus, Mr. Gennady Lasuta:
	Mr. Lasuta welcomes all attendees of the EFSCA conference and wishes all a constructive conference;
-	President of the EFSCA: Mr. Wim Beckmann:
	Mr. Wim Beckmann thanked the Deputy Minister Mr. Gennaday Lasuta for making this conference possible. Special thanks goes out to Mr. Ivan Palevoda and his staff for the organization of this years' conference.
	The complete content this speech can be found in the attached link
-	The Head of the Institute: Mr. Ivan Polevoda:
	On behalf of the institute and staff of The Institute for Command Engineers Mr. Ivan Palevoda welcomes all delegates. He hopes that the work of the conference will successful and opens officially opens the EFSCA conference 2013.
	Raising the flag of Belarus
	Raising the flag of EFSCA
	Musical greeting by Irina Darafeewa
09.30	Joint photo Session
09.45	Coffee Break
10.00	Plenary Session of the conference (part I)

10.00	Report 1:
	Mr. Aliksandr Ivanitski, Belarus;
	Subject: Introduction of The Institute for Command Engineers
	During this presentation Mr. Ivanitski explains the educational facilities for Fire Service and rescue students within the Republic of Belarus. He also underlines the importance of the cooperation of international organizations.
	This presentation as well as the speech can be found in the attached link
	Questions: There are no questions from the audience
10.30	Report 2:
	Mr. Taras Rak, The Ukraine;
	Subject: Peculiarities of professional training of specialists for fire and rescue services in the Ukraine.
	During this presentation Mr. Ivanitski explains the educational facilities for Fire Service and rescue students within the Republic of Belarus.
	This presentation as well as the speech can be found in the attached link
1st	Question:
	What is a Junior Specialist?
	Answer:
	A Junior Specialist is the basic education for fire fighters in The Ukraine
2nd	Question:
	What is the age of these students?
	Answer:
	The students are from secondary school. The junior and Bachelor educations take 4 years.
11.00	Presentation by Transas Company
	A representative of Transas Company from Russia give a presentation about their possibilities regarding simulations. More information about Transas Company can be found on: www.transas.com
11.30	Coffee Break
11.45	Plenary Session of the conference (part II)
12.10	Report 3:
	Ms. Agnes Balazs, Hungary;
	Subject: The new structure of the Hungarian Fire Training
	In this presentation Ms. Balazs explains the history of fire fighter training in Hungary and who they came to the present system of education an training.
	This presentation can be found in the attached link

1st.	Question:
	What kind of education must a candidate have to start a fire fighter education in Hungary?
	Answer:
	This depends on which level the student wants to start
2nd.	Question:
	What is the difference between the new and the old system?
	Answer:
	The new courses are much more unified.
3rd.	Question:
	What did they learn from EFSCA which helped them to change the system?
	Answer:
	At this part unfortunately they could not use much information from the EFSCA.
4th.	Question:
	Can Agnes give her presentation afterwards to the attendees?
	Answer:
	She will give them the presentation
12.35	Report 4:
	Mr. Josef Bader, Austria
	Unfortunately Mr. Bader could not make it to the conference. Therefore this presentation was cancelled.
12.45	Lunch
13.30	Excursion around the Institute for Command Engineers
14.00	Plenary session of the conference (part III)
14.00	Report 5:
	Mr. Christian Roets, Belgium
	Subject: Federal Centre of Expertise for Civil Protection
	With this presentation Mr. Roets explains how civil protection is organized within the Belgium. Their educational and trainings system is therefore divided over 11 provincial education / trainings centers. Based on two specific incidents which has happened in Belgium, together with Ms. Natalie de Backer, he also explains the importance of the relation between incident research and improving education and training.
	This presentation can be found in the attached link
1st.	Question:
	How can you be sure that the new procedures will be accepted by the fire fighters?
	Answer:
	The new procedures are guidelines. Training is important and every incident has to be evaluated before deciding which is the right procedure.

2nd.	Question:
	Is the firepower included in de SOP's?
	Answer:
	The amount of fire power is also depending on the number of firefighters who are available.
3rd.	Question:
	What kind of training needs a volunteer of civil protection?
	Answer:
	The volunteers are more for back-up. Their training is mostly an on site training.
4th.	Question:
	Who is responsible for the educations of Civil Protections?
	Answer:
	They are trained on their own units and some trainings are in the fire schools
14.30	Report 6:
	Mr. Grzegorz Beltowski, Poland;
	Subject: The main school of fire service
	First of all mr. Beltowski greets the attendees on behalf of Mr. Tomasz Zweglinski. Then he introduces The main school of fire service of Poland. He also explains how they developed their educational system to how it is today.
	This presentation as well as an introduction movie can be found in the attached link
	Questions: There are no questions from the audience
15.00	Transfer to the Hotel

Ionel- Alin Mocioi
EFSCA Secretary